J. Warner Wallace

10-14-18

This summer we did a series called, 'Up Next' and invited speakers from all over the United States to join us and share a sermon with us. Due to a power outage, J. Warner Wallace wasn't able to share his sermon and we are excited to welcome him back to TC!

- Open in Prayer
- J. Warner Wallace Bio
J. Warner Wallace is a cold-case homicide detective, popular national speaker, and best-selling author. He continues to consult on cold-case investigations while serving as a Senior Fellow at the Colson Center for Christian Worldview. He is also an adjunct professor of apologetics at Biola University and a faculty member at Summit Ministries. J. Warner was a conscientious and vocal atheist until the age of thirty-five, when he took a serious and expansive look at the evidence for the Christian Worldview and determined that Christianity was demonstrably true. After becoming a Christ-follower in 1996, J. Warner continued to take an evidential approach to truth as he examined the Christian worldview. He eventually earned a Master's Degree in Theological Studies from Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary.
- Discuss the sermon. If you'd like to re-watch the sermon to write down some main points to discuss with your TC Group, it's available on our website and on the TC App!
- Close in Prayer
