How Do We Wait on God in Seasons of Betrayal?

Share a time in your life when you felt betrayed. How did you have to wait on God in the situation? What were you waiting for? Was it difficult to wait?

1. Understand that you will be betrayed and that you will be a betrayed.

Read Genesis 37:23-45.

- Have you ever been a betrayer? What was that experience like?

2. Grieve your betrayal and leave it at the cross.

Read Genesis 39:8-9.

- Why is it important to grieve?
- How do you leave the betrayal at the cross?

3. Trust the process (God's).

Read Genesis 39:21-23.

- Who was with Joseph throughout everything? Why does this make a difference?
- How have you felt God with you during seasons of betrayal?

Read Romans 8:28-29.

- What is the ultimate goal?
- In what ways have you seen yourself conformed to His image?

4. Turn your betrayal into a blessing.

Read Genesis 50:20-21.

- Think about a betrayal you've walked through. How did God bring about good in the situation?
- What can you do to turn your betrayal into a blessing?
